Gang Awareness

Glenn Granitz, Allentown Police Department

In this two hour training participants will be given an overview of current information regarding gang activity- including information on gangs with increased presence in the Lehigh Valley area. The presentation will also include discussion on how and why children/adolescents are susceptible to and introduced to gangs. Participants will also learn how to recognize suspicious/gang-related behavior and how to respond to gang activity occurring in child/adolescent residential settings.

Detective Glenn Granitz is Director of Gang Intelligence, as well as a Supervisory Investigative Sergeant of the Allentown Police Department.
