

A Toolbox of Techniques

Presented by:
Danielle Budash, Psy.D., RPT-S
Nikki Bricker, LCSW, RPT

Description:

This play therapy training will provide participants a variety of expressive arts interventions...a toolbox of techniques. The toolbox can be utilized across the stages of the therapeutic relationship and treatment. Participants will be able to use and modify these techniques to implement with children, families, and groups. Bring your clinical toolbox and come prepared to add tools, learn, and play!

Who Should Attend?

- Play Therapists
- Psychologists
- Licensed Professional Counselors
- School Counselors
- Marriage and Family Therapists
- Social Workers

Temple University Harrisburg NEST is proud to co-sponsor this training event.

Learning Objectives

Participants will be able to:

1. Apply a range of expressive art techniques to utilize throughout the stages of play therapy treatment including play-based interventions, creative arts, bibliotherapy, therapeutic games, and movement.
2. List at least two play therapy techniques to assess social-emotional functioning.
3. Implement at least two play therapy techniques with groups and families.
4. Utilize at least two play therapy techniques to address feelings identification, expression, and emotional regulation.
5. Apply at least two play therapy techniques to address a range of coping skills.
